DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES<sup>1</sup>

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On January 3, 2017, James Cantwell (“petitioner”) filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,<sup>2</sup> (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner sought compensation for the death of his son, M.C., on March 3, 2015, allegedly due to intussusception following a rotavirus vaccination, which was administered on February 15, 2015. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On May 18, 2017, the undersigned issued a ruling on entitlement, finding petitioner entitled to compensation. On July 19, 2017, respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation (“Proffer”) indicating petitioner, as legal representative of the estate of M.C., should be awarded $360,415.00. Proffer at 1. In the Proffer, respondent represented that petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Id. Based on the record as a whole, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

<sup>1</sup> Because this unpublished decision contains a reasoned explanation for the action in this case, the undersigned intends to post it on the United States Court of Federal Claims' website, in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002. 44 U.S.C. § 3501 note (2012) (Federal Management and Promotion of Electronic Government Services). In accordance with Vaccine Rule 18(b), petitioner has 14 days to identify and move to redact medical or other information, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of privacy. If, upon review, the undersigned agrees that the identified material fits within this definition, the undersigned will redact such material from public access.

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, the undersigned awards petitioner a lump sum payment of $360,415.00 in the form of a check payable to petitioner as the legal representative of the estate of M.C. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under § 15(a) for M.C.'s vaccine-related injury and death.

The clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.<sup>3</sup>
